Laura in hunt of subliminal willies!

I'm quite sure I can find some in here somewhere, perhaps not tonight, but tomorrow...

... a healthy cooked breakfast

NOT SO

~~SUBLIMINAL~~ WILLY!

It's my first Dogs event, and I was a little nervous about spending days with lots of insane people... I've been here approx. 5 1/2 hours and I'm much reassured by the level of... insanity! Then again, ask me on Saturday... SB.

It is actually much the same as ever, DOG slowly terrifying and Scarily vice versa. After ^{maths} much debating we still have no ones name including the ones we used to know!

Random fact? Mad's consumption rate of grainal is 100% times faster than her consumption of orange. And so it should be!

Important STOP-PRESS: Mad has found a sign in the kitchen saying "STOP COCK" - the cause of very much amusement to some of the less mature amongst us
